

WISCONSIN REGIONAL SKI-FOR-LIGHT EVENT

YOU ARE INVITED TO COME SKI WITH US

What: Cross Country Ski weekend for individuals with visual impairments

When: January 18-20, 2008

Where: The Wisconsin Lions Camp Rosholt, WI

Who: Ages 12 years and up

Ski-for-light exists to give individuals with visual impairments the opportunity to participate in vigorous, rewarding outdoor winter activities and learn how to cross-country ski. No previous skiing experience necessary.

What is provided: transportation from Madison, ski equipment, food and a place to stay. Trained volunteer guides will work with you one-on-one.

Who sponsors this: The Wisconsin Regional Ski-for-Light Committee, Sons of Norway Lodges, individuals, organizations, and businesses.

Your cost: $35.00

Who to contact:

Heather Buggs 608-663-5097 or

Bev Helland 608-884-4955 or bevhelland@yahoo.com

Please let us know if you would like the application in Braille or via e-mail.

All participants will spend Friday and Saturday night at the Wisconsin Lions Camp. A bus will leave the Badger Bus Depot in Madison at 5:00pm, Friday, January 18, 2008 and return to Madison approximately 4:00pm Sunday the 20th.

Although a one-on-one guide is provided for skiing for the entire weekend, participants should be independent in all aspects of self care. You are being asked to pay a $35.00 registration fee for the weekend. All other costs will be covered by the Wisconsin Regional Ski-for-Light Committee. These costs include bus transportation from Madison, meals, lodging and ski equipment (if needed).

Please return the completed ski application, emergency data form, the liability waiver and $35.00 registration fee, with checks made out to Wisconsin Regional Ski for Light, to:
Heather Buggs
1305 C Tompkins Drive
Madison, WI 53716

Send email applications to bevhelland@yahoo.com

Registration before December 20, 2007 would be appreciated to plan for the number of ski guides. Registrations will be accepted on a first come, first served basis. You will receive a letter of confirmation with more information on what to bring with you.

Participants traveling directly to the Lion's camp may arrive any time after 5 p.m. Friday, January 18, 2008.

No cancellations—Alternate activities have been planned
